

Figure 1.1: The red line defined by the linear equation $y(x) = 2x - 2$ has slope $m = 2$ and y -intercept $b = -2$. All figures in this text were drawn using the vector graphics language Asymptote.